

Soap on a Stick

Everyone's heard of soap on a rope, but what about soap on a stick? Lather up with Jelly Pong Pong's popsicle-shaped soaps. Moving from the freezer to the bathtub, these yummy-smelling suds come in flavors like loli-choo, watermelon and neopolitan. They look cute enough to eat and we have a feeling you'll leave the shower craving some real ice cream!

«Jelly Pong Pong»
Soap popsicles $7
jellypong.com

10 ways to beautify yourself

Color in a Click

For a quick and easy skin color boost, check out True Blue Spa's Shade to Order self tanner. You simply click the dial to your desired color level. Apply and watch as your tan deepens before your eyes. Plus—while you wait—the lotion moisturizes and conditions your skin.

«True Blue Spa»
Shade to order self tan $19
bathandbodyworks.com

Slice of Heaven

Fed, tired eyes are a beauty disaster when you are trying to put your best face forward. We've all tried creams, drops, and various homemade remedies—that we wouldn't recommend—and none have revitalized our overworked peepers. Enter Eyeslices!

They are eye pads that relieve redness, puffiness, dark circles, and irritation after one use! These miracle workers are good for up to 5 uses and only need to be applied for 5 minutes. Keep the pocket-sized pads in your purse or the fridge for a quick eye lift.

«Eyeslices»
Eyeslices $20
eyeslicesusa.com